By accessing our website, you agree to comply with and be bound by these Terms of Service.

If you do not agree to these terms, please do not use the website.

Use of the Website

You agree to use this website only for lawful purposes and in a way that does not violate any applicable laws or regulations or infringe on the rights of others.

You may not:

- Use the site for illegal activities
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to any part of the site
- Disrupt or damage the website or servers
- Copy or exploit content without permission

Intellectual Property

All content on this website, including text, graphics, logos, and images, is the property of Mid-State Electric unless otherwise stated and is protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.

You may not reproduce, distribute, or use our content without written permission.

User Content (if applicable)

If you submit content to the website (such as comments or messages), you grant us the right to use, display, and distribute that content for website-related purposes.

You are responsible for the content you submit and must ensure it does not violate any laws or rights of others.

Disclaimer

This website is provided “as is” and “as available” without warranties of any kind, either express or implied.

We do not guarantee that the website will be error-free, secure, or uninterrupted.

Limitation of Liability

We shall not be liable for any damages arising from your use or inability to use this website.

Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for their content or practices.

Termination

We reserve the right to restrict or terminate access to the website at our discretion, without notice, for conduct that violates these Terms.

Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Changes will be posted on this page with an updated date.

Governing Law

These Terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Tennessee.
